

Wisconsin Resources to Support People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities in the Criminal Justice System

Disability Rights Wisconsin: <http://www.disabilityrightswi.org/>

Disability Rights helps people across Wisconsin gain access to services and opportunity through its advocacy and legal expertise. People with disabilities who have believe they have been discriminated against in the criminal justice system can call for assistance. DRW does not provide criminal defense services but can make referrals.

- Victim Advocacy Program: <http://www.disabilityrightswi.org/learn/victim-advocacy-program/>
The Victim Advocacy program provides direct service to individuals with disabilities who experience crime, even if the crime has not been reported.

The Arc Wisconsin: <https://arcwi.org/>

The Arc-Wisconsin provides assistance to people with developmental and related disabilities and their families. The Arc Wisconsin is knowledgeable about local resources and organizations that can help. There are 15 local chapters of The Arc across Wisconsin. Find the chapter closest to you here:
